Roll Up Your Sleeve! Getting Your Influenza Shot Helps Arizona Hospitals

Want to do even more to protect yourself, your loved ones, healthcare workers, first responders, and your community while COVID-19 continues to circulate in Arizona? Roll up your sleeve and get an influenza shot.

The Arizona Department of Health Services (ADHS) has launched a public awareness campaign – Roll Up Your Sleeve – to encourage people to get an influenza shot. It includes messages for healthcare workers, families with young children, college students, and people at high risk for serious complications from influenza. There’s also a new Roll Up Your Sleeve website featuring an influenza shot locator.
The influenza vaccine is already available, and the shot offers protection throughout the flu season. Even though influenza season usually peaks after New Year’s, it can begin earlier. Last influenza season, for example, hit earlier and harder than usual.

Roll Up Your Sleeve aims to reduce the chances of a potential one-two punch from influenza and COVID-19 cases that could strain healthcare resources.

For more information, visit www.azhealth.gov/RollUpYourSleeve.

Sandra Day O’Connor Civics Celebration Day

Today, September 25, 2020, is Arizona's inaugural Sandra Day O'Connor Civics Celebration Day coinciding with the 39th anniversary of Justice O'Connor being sworn in as the first female Supreme Court Justice. Legislation establishing this celebratory day was signed into law on March 24, 2020 and honors Justice O'Connor's commitment to public service and encouraging civic engagement among the nation’s children.

Arizona is proud to call Justice O’Connor one of our own!

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month

The worldwide annual campaign kicks off next month, involving thousands of organizations, highlighting the importance of breast awareness, self-exams, education, and research. For more information and breast cancer resources, visit www.nationalbreastcancer.org.

CMS Medical Documentation Interoperability Pilot

The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid (CMS) is encouraging healthcare providers to participate in a new interoperability pilot to test medical documentation exchanges. This Electronic Medical Documentation Interoperability (EMDI) Initiative is designed to reduce provider burden through the standardization of electronic documentation workflow.
